Greetings from Guatemala,

It is somewhat sad how people all over the world celebrate Easter – millions of them see our Risen Lord as a defeated and still suffering Christ, hanging on the cross, dying. And that is why so many of them are living defeated lives themselves.

May we never forget the cross and what our Blessed Savior did for us some 2000 years ago. But, Praise God – He is not on the cross today suffering. Right before His death, He said: “IT IS FINISHED”. His suffering for our sins was over. They took His body and placed it in the tomb. However, He did not stay there! He went to hell (as a conqueror and not a defeated martyr) and kicked down the gates - He set the Old Testament captives free – He defeated Satan - He defeated death, hell and the grave.

Then Praise God – His Resurrection!

Rom. 6:10 – “For in that He died, He died unto sin once: but in that He liveth, He liveth unto God”
But that’s not all; V. 11- “Likewise reckon you also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord”.

Heb. 2:9 says: “But we see Jesus”. How do we see Him? As a suffering Christ still dying on the cross? Bless God, a thousand times NO. We see Him as John saw Him in Rev. 1 – His eyes were as a flame of fire – His voice as the sound of many waters – His countenance was as the sun shining in its strength – and He said: “I am He that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death”.

We also see Him as John saw Him in Rev. 19 – It is that of a great conqueror sitting upon a white horse – on His head many crowns – out of His mouth a sharp sword – and written on His vesture and on His thigh a name: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

We see Him as in Acts 10:38 – who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with Him”.

Now, may I encourage you to consider I John 4:17 – “because as He is, so are we in this world”. Do you see that? The Bible says that as Jesus is – so are we in this world (not just when we get to Heaven, but now). I dare you to begin to believe and confess this every day. If the Church would grasp this truth and begin to think like Jesus – talk like Jesus - act like Jesus – and do the greater works that Jesus said that we could do – then we could wind this thing up in a short time and bring our King Jesus back. Halleluiah!

So, let me ask you today – How do you see Jesus Christ in your life and how do you see yourself in His life?

In His Service with You,

Pastor Clarence
