Dear Covenant Partners,

Our prayer over your lives is Ephesians 3:19: “That you may know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God”.

This letter that I am writing is an encouragement to those who read it to: “Stay Connected to God”. We are approaching the soon return of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Our enemy, Satan, also knows that His coming is right at the door and is trying to do everything in his power to take us out one by one. In fact, 1 Peter 5:8 says: “He walks about like a roaring lion (he’s not a roaring lion, he only thinks he is) seeking whom he may devour.” In other words, he would like to destroy every child of God; but, glory be to His Name, the only authority he has over us is what we give him.

Don’t give him any place by speaking words of doubt, fear, lack, because the next verse, I Peter 5:9 says: “Resist him, steadfast in the faith.” This word “steadfast” means: Firm, fixed, constant. We resist him; we don’t fight the devil because Jesus already conquered him. We resist him with our faith in the Word of God.

Our victory over every circumstance of life, every obstacle, and every attack of the enemy is to maintain a living connection with God. Keep your ear tuned in to what the Spirit of God is speaking to you daily. Stay alert, guard your heart, walk in faith, forgive instantly, reject offenses, and obey the voice of God.

Saturate yourself with the Word of God. Read it, study it, meditate it, digest it, and live it. If you aren’t entering daily into a secret place to have intimate time with the Lord, find yourself one in your home and begin each day in prayer.

Stay conscious of His presence! In your daily activities, don’t forget how big God is, and how great is His love and how deep is His strength. His Spirit is on the inside of you to guide you daily in the affairs of life. Stay in constant contact with Him! You are a blessing and greatly appreciated!

In His love and mine,

Marion Z. Wright
