

Living in Instant Forgiveness

Jesus wants us, as Christians, to make forgiveness a way of life. He wants us to be free from resentments, critical and unforgiving attitudes. Unforgiveness will hinder the flow of the promises of God's Word and the abundant life that He has provided if we are unforgiving toward others.

If you have received Jesus, God has forgiven you. What you were before, you are not now. When we are born again, it is a new beginning. We have no past in God's eyes. It doesn't matter what you were, what you did, what you thought or how you acted. If you are saved, you are a new person in Christ Jesus.

Isaiah 43:25 says: "I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake; and I will not remember your sins."

He forgives and doesn't remember. We are like a new baby without a past. We are clean in His sight. God did this for us through His Son, Jesus. Someone said, "God casts our sins into the Sea of Forgetfulness, and then He places a sign there that says: NO FISHING!"

God never brings past sins to light again. Never! When you say to Him, "Father, remember when", He will answer, "I don't know what you are talking about". You need to do the same. When you ask for forgiveness for something, you are forgiven. You never need to remember it again; don't even talk about it. It's been erased out of your life.

After we are born again, if we sin, we can have INSTANT forgiveness according to 1 John 1:9: "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." You don't get born again, again, you get forgiven. God wants us to be that quick to forgive others also.

Psalms 66:18 says: "If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me." In other words, our prayers will be hindered and we break off our fellowship with the Father. When there is unconfessed sin in our lives, we block our communication with the Father and it becomes difficult to pray. He is not going to listen to you and your prayers won't get answered. To get back into fellowship, repent, and instantly you are forgiven. That is the goodness of our God!
