Greetings Covenant Partners,

In Philippians 4:6-7, Paul writes from prison saying, “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; v 7 and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus”. This is not a normal statement you would hear from someone who has been wrongly done and now in prison. So many get mad when they don't get their food order the way they like it or other such things and their peace just goes out the window. But again, Paul wrote this from a place that many would say “this is the bottom of the barrel”. But honestly, this is just not true. Because we are in Christ Jesus, no matter where we are, He is with us and with that we are always on top. The way things might look at the moment does not set a tone for the end result at all.

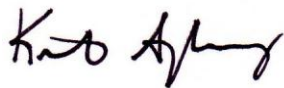

When we went through what we did in November 1998 with the plane crash, many might have just thrown their hands up and said “that's it”. But we must realize that giving up, is not an option. When we encounter something in life, we need to just look at it like a speed bump. Yes, it might be bumpy for a moment, but it will come to an end and smooth sailing is ahead. Wherever you are today, know that you are not alone. He promised to never leave you and that is what He meant, never!

Well Brother Keith, you don't know where I am or what is going on in my life today. This is true, but He does and He sent Jesus over 2,000 years ago for you to be free from that very thing. Christ has redeemed you from the curse of the law by being made a curse for you. Did you hear that? Christ redeemed YOU from a law that was based on your actions and doings and paid this price in full forevermore with His actions. Stop trying to earn what is already yours in life and just be at peace giving thanks for what you already have, even if you don't see it. Because faith is not what we see, but instead, what we know. So, peace is in the knowing that what you need right now and forevermore is already done for you. I said now and forever. My pastor just did a great teaching and he talked about not putting restraints on what is yours. Never let the “someday syndrome” effect what is yours now!

Today, right now, God has everything you could ever want, need, or desire, already waiting for you. It does not need to be paid for, it is already marked “PAID IN FULL” and waiting for you to pick it up. So, just take a moment, and let those things that have been taking your peace, fall off of you and let His peace rule now and forevermore. Today is a new day, so stand on Romans 8:1 and make a fresh start and determine that wherever you are, you will be at peace. Let the peace of God rule you and nothing else.

Debbie and I pray God's richest over you now and forever more.

Sincerely,

Dr. Keith & Debbie (Zirkle) Spanberger
