Greetings Dear Covenant Partner,

I pray this letter finds you living in the Lord's richest blessings!

I wanted to share something with you this month that has been burning on my heart for some time now. Let's start by reading John 3:16 AMP "For God so greatly loved and dearly prized the world that He [even] gave up His only begotten (unique) Son, so that whoever believes in (trusts in, clings to, relies on) Him shall not perish (come to destruction, be lost) but have eternal (everlasting) life". When we look up the word "perish" in the Strong's Concordance it means "to destroy fully (reflexively, to perish, or lose), literally or figuratively: - destroy, die, lose, mar, perish." When I think about the word perish, I think about something not getting used for its intended use. Though Adam made a decision that brought the fall of man, God through Jesus made a way that by which we could walk free from that fall.

As I said above, we have an intended use and must realize and walk in it to the fullest. The late Dr. James L. Zirkle, said many times, "there are only two types of Christians: goers and senders". The first time I heard this was on his teaching, "What is Real Missions" which was recorded at Christ Chapel at ORU in Tulsa, OK, in the early 80's. Over the last few years, we have heard many teachings on the very same thing but we call it "Kings and Priests". I took some time and looked in the Word and did some research on the kings and their roles and also the priests and their rolls, as well. The kings were responsible for destroying the enemies of God and using the spoils of war to tithe and provide for the priests. The priests were responsible for hearing from God, making sacrifices for the nation, and caring for the people. Priests provided the vision and kings provided the provision. We read about the offices of the priest or as it is called the "five-fold ministry" but we will talk about this in later teachings. These two offices are God ordained and must be filled and working together to fulfill the commission to go ye into all the world. If to be just a king and not recognize and partake in global evangelism, would really make that king no different than any other worldly king in business for himself.

But what if we have priests trying to be kings and kings trying to be priests? A good example of one trying to be the other is in 2 Chronicles 26:16-21. King Uzziah through his pride tried to stand in the place of the priest and suffered a great consequence for it.

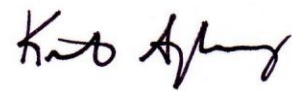

Not too long ago, I saw a vision as I was walking around our ministry grounds praying. I saw kings rising up from every direction under the sun and surrounding priests around the world. I then saw those priests being sent out to fulfill their calling. I heard following that in my spirit, "This is part of the problem; my kings and priests are out of their places." Just like on a chess board, if something is out of place, the game quickly comes to an end. In our calling, if we are not in our rightful place, things can quickly come to an end, as well. Well, it's time to get into place you kings and priests! There are priests shutting the doors of their ministries every day, thinking they have failed God and done all they knew to do to keep things afloat, but it's never been their job to do that. Christian businesses close daily around the world because I think they are running on a false blessing and fulfilling nothing for the kingdom! But as I see it in the Old Testament, when they work together, they become unstoppable!

So, I challenge you to take some time today to be alone with God and determine your calling in the kingdom as either a king or a priest. But when you ask with a pure and open heart, be ready to step out and off the boat as Peter did. BUT do not look back, just focus on Him!

If this has ministered to you, then I would love to hear from you with the praise reports.

Always know that you are loved and in our prayers. We speak life, health, peace and prosperity over you and all that you place your hands upon.

Remember to keep reaching forward,
